Lynette grew up with Terriers with her first “pet” being an Australian Terrier. Thus began a life long passion for a variety of dog breeds, dog showing and eventual attainment of licensure as an All-Breed Best in Show judge with the Australian National Kennel Council (ANKC).

Since first stepping into the show ring in 1985, she has been an active member of the dog world in the State of New South Wales (NSW). Lynette has enjoyed many successes with her Westies, some highlights include:

- “Terrier of the Year’ in NSW, six times
- Multiple Best in Show awards both All Breeds and at Specialty levels
- Best in Show at the Great Joint Terrier Show
- Best in Show (3) at The Sydney Royal.

Lynette purchased her foundation Jack Russell Terrier bitch in 1993. From this foundation, she developed and established a line of Champions and Grand Champions, not only in Australia, but around the world. Her Jack Russell Terriers have enjoyed many successes, among them:

- Best in Show at the Great Joint Terrier Show
- ‘Terrier of the Year’ in NSW
- Best Puppy in Group at The Brisbane Royal, returning the following year to win
- Best in the Terrier Group at The Brisbane Royal
- Best in Show awards both All Breeds and at Specialty levels

Successes in other breeds include Wire Fox Terriers, Sealyham Terriers, and Whippets.

Actively involved in various dog clubs, Lynette served as President of the British Terrier Club of NSW, for 13 years after serving as Secretary for ten years. Lynette is also a member of Dogs NSW Media and Government Legislation Committee, The Terrier Group Co-ordinator for the Conformation Judges Training in NSW and a member of the Board of Directors Royal NSW Canine Council.

Lynette has written breed lectures for the West Highland White Terrier and the Jack Russell Terrier, which she has presented to the aspirant Terrier judges in NSW on a numerous occasions. Lynette has also presented a breed lecture on the Jack Russell Terrier to Terrier Judges and enthusiasts in Scandinavia and other FCI countries.

Most recently, a West Highland White Terrier owned and handled by Lynette made history by becoming the first Westie in Australia to attain the title of ‘Supreme Champion’.

As an ANKC licensed All-Breeds judge, Lynette has enjoyed judging appointments in Sweden, Denmark, Italy, The Philippines, New Zealand and in most states in Australia, at both Specialty and All Breeds Shows, culminating in judging Jack Russell Terrier dogs, Best of Breed and The West Highland White Terrier Club show at the prestigious 2015 World Dog Show in Milano, Italy.
